

20 October 1966

MEMORANDUM FOR: Senior Training Officers

SUBJECT: Advanced Intelligence Course (Class 2-67)

1. The Central Intelligence Agency has been invited to nominate three persons for the Advanced Intelligence Course which will be held at the Defense Intelligence School during the period 27 February - 2 June 1967 (Class 2-67).
2. This 14-week course is designed for senior personnel from the major contributors to the National intelligence effort and affords an opportunity for them to meet together in a formal school atmosphere. Additional details on the course are contained in the two attachments, and a notice will appear in the next issue of the regular OTR Bulletin.
3. We have been asked to submit our nominations to the Defense Intelligence School prior to 31 January 1967; therefore, please submit your nominations to the Executive Secretary, Training Selection Board not later than 20 December 1966, in order to permit appropriate review before the DIS nomination deadline. In submitting your nominations, include two copies of the biographic profile and most recent fitness report on each nominee.
